

July 29, 2016

Air Works' B&GA MRO Division Receives a Number of Additional Approvals this Week

Air Works India (Engineering) Pvt. Ltd. (Air Works) received a series of additional local and international approvals this week from OEMs and regulatory authorities at its facilities in India, solidifying its position as India's premier Maintenance, Repair and Overhaul (MRO) company.

These are:

- 1) C14 Landing Gear Approval to carry out Tyre Change and Wheel Build up for Main Wheel Assembly P/No.: 3-1641 (Make: BF Goodrich), 5009029(Make: Meggitt) and Nose Wheel Assembly P/No.: 3-1622 (Make: BF Goodrich) at its Mumbai facility
- 2) Cayman Island Approval for maintenance of Legacy 650 / Embraer 135 at its Hosur facility
- 3) DGCA CAR-145 Base Approval on Hawker 750/800XP/850XP/900XP (TFE 731 Engines) Aircraft to include maintenance up to and including 800 hours and 24 months Schedule Inspection at its Pune facility
- 4) DGCA CAR-145 Base Approval on Bombardier BD700-1A10/1A11 (RR BR700-710A2-20 Engines) Aircraft to include maintenance up to and including 450 Landings, 900 Landings and 750 Hours Schedule Inspection at its Pune facility
- 5) DGCA CAR-145 Base Approval on Kodiak 100 (PWC PT6A-34 Engines) Aircraft to include maintenance up to and including 400 Hours and Annual Schedule Inspection at its Cochin facility

About Air Works

Founded in 1951, Air Works provides engineering, asset management and safety and technology solutions to the commercial and business aviation communities. We are service providers to global aircraft leasing companies and airlines, first-line service providers to leading OEMs, 1 of only 7 IATA certified safety auditors, a global market leader for charter safety ratings, and the largest independent MRO provider in India.

For more information about any of Air Works' services, call +91 124 464 2200, email us at info@airworks.in or visit our website at www.airworks.in